

The developement of DTV in the Scranton/Wilkes-Barre, Pa area has been horrible. Three of the five stations on the air broadcast their analog signal on their digital station. There is no point in going to digital in that case. They also broadcast at such low power that it is almost impossible to receive their signals at all. Please do something about it.